This land was deeded from the estate of Jas H King to his son H King, who having received a deed in the clerk's office of this county, but then were 40 acres lying in the county which were included in the said estate of 99 and a change on the books of that county. The corner of survey was only 26 1/2 in this county which is charged to him to the said Est for which H King pays before in that Co. So I was informed a made a transfer of the whole 665 acres to H King.
