Away, my unbelieving fear!
Fear shall in me no longer have place My Savior doth not yet appear He hides the brightness of his face But shall I therefore let him go And basely to the tempter yield No, in the strength of Jesus, No, I never will give up my shield.

6. HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE:(Continued).

854. In Memory of My Mother
Eliza Russell
Born in Sligo, Ireland
August 26, 1796.
Died in Petersburg May 8, 1851.
And her four children
Joseph Caldwell
Eliza Caldwell
Johnston H. Caldwell
David E. Caldwell
Born and died in Petersburg.

855. Sacred to the Memory of Arthur Johnston
A native of Ireland
But for 18 years a merchant of Petersburg, who departed this life on the 26th of November 1828. Aged 39 years.
Upright in all his transactions, Affectionate in his family, Beloved by his friends.
And respected by all who knew him.
This stone has been erected by his widow and children as a feeble tribute to one who was most dear to them, in this life And whose memory since he has been called, to another and better world, they will never cease to cherish with the tenderest regard.

856. This memorial of affection is erected to the memory of Edward Russel Hill only son of Russel and Margaret L. Hill
Born Oct.28,1828
Died May 27,1837.
He early promise gave of future usefulness and worth;
But the tender bud was niped untimely by the frost of death.
In a more genial clime his spirit lives, Where pain and sorrow can affect no more..

857. Beneath this marble rests the remains of Eliza Hill Daughter of Russell and Margaret L. Hill
Born
18th April 1817
Departed this life 19th
Aug. 1833.
Amiable in her manner teachable in her disposition She gave early promise of a life of happiness and prosperity
But death!
relentless death severed the ties which bound her to the earth and left her friends to mourn But hope looks up to that bright day
When friends shall meet again

858. Here
Lies in silence Waiting for the resurrection from the dead, the mortal remains of Margaret L. Hill
The once amiable and affectionate Consort of Russel Hill
Born June 19,1786
Died Oct. 28,1825.
Let life immortal animate my clay
Let love refine my blood Her flames can bear my soul away
And bring me near my God Swift I ascend the Heavenly place
And hasten to my home I leap to meet thy kind embrace
I come Oh! God I come
She was a good wife
An affectionate mother
And a devoted follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

And a spotless life is old age Being made perfect in a short space, he fulfilled a long time For his soul pleased God
But the Just that is dead Condemneth the wicked that are living And youth soon ended the long life of the unjust.
The law of truth was in his mouth And iniquity was not found in his lips.

Called hence by early doom;
Just came to show how sweet a flower,
In Paradise would bloom.

of loving heart, her presence brightened her home. With her life work well done she sat waiting for her Lord, and went with Joy to Meet Him at His call.
Her dying words
"Into Thy hand I commit My Spirit thou hast redeemed Me, O Lord God of Truth." Ps. 31:5
From a home of which her presence was the sunlight She has passed to one where the shadows never fall.

1932 Roberta The Grave of Roberta H.
Wife of John B. Tucker Daughter of Thos. & Elizabeth Daniel
Died July 18, 1859.
Aged 37 years - 7 mos. - 26 days.
This monument is erected by her husband as a token of affectionate regard and remembrance to her, Who in life was the bright particular star, of his domestic circle, the mother of his children. The charm of his affections, and who though dead yet liveth fondly cherished in his memory.

None to console, and, cheer domestic life,
She gave a sweet example as a wife,
How to be virtuous circumspect and kind Her children learned from her instructive mind
But most her husband felt her tender care Most now he fells the anguish of despair
His friends and neighbors can not give relief
They knew her worth and only swell his grief.
The deceased was survived by her husband and four children. as a wife she was kind affectionate and beloved as a mother unremitting in attention and devotion to her off spring, as a member of society, gentle, amiable, and dignified, she has gone hence lamented by her family, missed by society: peace to her ashes and may a crown of bliss ever encircle her pure bright brows.

Gone, but not forgotten Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, from which none ever wake to weep A calm and undisturbed repose, unbroken by the last of foes. Asleep in Jesus, far from thee, Thy kindred, and their graves may be,
But still there is a blessed sleep From which none ever wakes to weep.

Because he hath set his love upon me Therefore will I deliver him. I will set him on high because he hath known my name. Psalm XCI-ver. 14.
We know that when lifes' trials are o'er, When earthly Joys are dim, and standing by the rolling flood, we hear the heavenly hymn, That hearts we love will welcome us, Their hands will lead us on To mingle in the melody, of voices that are gone.

D- died - w, -wounded - at Fort Meigs, k, Killed at Fort Meigs- P, promoted, P. A. promoted in the army.

General Orders- Headquarters- Detroit 17th Oct. 1813.
The term of service for which the Petersburg Volunteers were engaged having expired they are permitted to commence their March to Virginia, as soon as they can be transported to the south side of the lake.
In granting a discharge to this patriotic and gallant corps, The General feels at a loss for words adequate to convey his sense of their exalted merits, almost exclusively composed of individuals who had been nursed in the lap of ease, they have military life. In the midst of an inhospitable wilderness, with a cheerfulness and alacrity which has never been surpassed. Their conduct in the field has been excelled by no other corps; and whilst in camp, they have set an example of subordination and respect for military authority to the whole army- The General requests Captain M'Rae his Subalterns Non Commissioned Officers and Privates to accept his warmest thanks- and bids them an affectionate farewell.
By Command- Robert Butler acting assistant adjutant General.

Could the mild virtues still to memory dear, or innocence the rage of death disarm and early victom had not rested here, Nor had a husband mourn'd his doom severe-Nor infant sorrows streamed around the grave, Nor weeping relatives mix'd the falling tear such was her worth Could worth exception crave Earth's dreary call could N'er that form beloved enslave.

Far beyond this world of changes, (North side) Far beyond this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved ones,
In our Father's mansion fair.

Farewell, farewell, but not forever (East side)
There will be a glorious dawn,
We will meet to part no more,
On the resurrection morn.

Sleep on, sleep on, and take thy rest, (South side) God called thee home, he thought it best 'Twas hard indeed to part with thee, Erected as a token of the love and affection, by their loving daughter

4000 In Memory of The Patriots Who planned, upheld and achieved The Independence of The United States of America 1775 - 1782 Erected by the Randolph Chapter D. A. R. Petersburg, Virginia 1903

Description of Memorial Windows in Old Blandford Church, Petersburg, Virginia.
On entering the Western door to one's right, may be seen the South Carolina Window, on the south wall of the church. Figure: St. Mark who suffered martyrdom about the end of the reign of Nero. In his hand he carries a roll of parchment. Inscription: To the Glory of God, and in memory of South Carolina's sons who died for the Confederacy. He doeth according to his will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth.

Immediately opposite, on the north wall, is found the Alabama Window. Figure; St. Andrew. Among the first called by our Lord. The Cross on which he was crucified was made of two pieces of timber crossed in the middle, and upon this his body was tied with cords. This X shaped cross may be seen in the window, and it has ever been called the Cross of St. Andrew. Inscription: To the Glory of God and in sacred memory of Alabama's brave Confederate Band.

"Brave men may die
Right has no death Truth never shall pass away."

Northern Window east end of church. Figure: St. James. He was the Bishop of Jerusalem and was beheaded by Herod, Agrippa. This figure holds in the palm of his hand a miniature church. Inscription: To the glory of God and in loving memory of Mississippians of the Confederacy who fell around Petersburg, Va. "For their Country they gave their lives. Greater love hath no man than this."

On the east side of the North wing of the church is found the Tennessee Window. Figure: St. Phillip, with his staff and open book in hand. Inscription: "To the Glory of God and in loving memory of our heroes of Tennessee."
"To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die."

In the north gallery are two windows, not large enough for figures, but bearing respectfully the seals of Maryland and Arkansas. Each seal is encircled witha wreath of Myrtle. Inscriptions: "To the Glory of God and in memory of Arkansas soldiers who died for their State." Inscription: "To the glory of God and in loving memory of Maryland's heroic sons.

East end of church, window to left is that of Missouri. Figure: St. Peter with key in his hand. Sentenced by Nero and crucified. Inscription: Given by the Confederate Memorial Societies of Missouri "Qui Moriuntur pro jure nem quam moruntur fructus."

East end window to the right, is Virginia's memorial. Figure: St. John, with loving cup in hand. The only apostle who escaped a violent death. Inscription: To the glory of God and in memory of Virginia Patriots and heroes of the Confederate Army. "Eternal right though all else fail, can never be made wrong."

On the south, to the left of the pulpit, is the Louisiana window, erected by the "ashington Artillery of New Orleans. Figure: St. Peter, the Apostle to the Gentiles. A Roman citizen and beheaded by Nero. Inscription: "To the Glory of God and in memory of those brave men of the Washington Artillery of New Orleans, Louisiana, who gave their lives for the Confederate cause.

To the right of the pulpit is seen the North Carolina Window. Figure: St. Bartholemew, also called Nathaniel. In his right hand he holds a knife. He was flayed alive and then crucified. Inscription: In memory of North Carolina's Soldiers of whom 40,275 proved their devotion to duty by their death.
"God bless North Carolina. R. E. Lee."

The transom over the West door, main entrance to the church is a simple memorial to the brave, noble women of the sixties, who gathered the bodies of our slain and gave them a resting place in Old Blandford Cemetery.

Far above the transom is a small window which has been devoted to the Tiffany Cross of Jewels, bearing the inscription; "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace good will toward men."

This poem was written of the walls in 1841 Supposed to have been composed by Tyrone Power, an Irish Comedian of Waterford, Ireland.

Thou are crumbling to the dust old pile, Thou are crumbling to thy fall;
And round thee in thy loneliness Clings the ivy to the wall;
The worshippers are scattered now who knelt before thy shrine, And silence reigns where anthems rose In the days of "auld Lang Syne."

And sadly sigh the wandering wind Where off in years gone by Prayer rose from many hearts to him,
The Highest of the High.
The tramp of many a busy foot That sought the Aisles is o'er And many a weary heart around Is still forever more.

How doth Ambitions hope take wing!
How droops the spirit now!
He hears the distant City's din;
The dead are mute below.
The sun that shines upon their paths
Now gilds their lonely graves
The zephyrs which once fanned their brows
The grass upon them waves.

Oh! could we call the men back Who've gathered here in vain Who've careless roved where we do now Who'll never meet again;
How would our hearts be stirred,
To meet the earnest gaze
Of the lovely and the beautiful
The Light of other days.
