Recognizing that persons who hold public office have been given a public trust and that the stewardship of such office demands the highest levels of ethical and moral conduct, any person serving on the Dinwiddie County Board of Zoning Appeals should adhere to the following Code of Ethics:

1. Uphold the Constitution, laws and regulations of the United States and of all governments therein and never knowingly be a part to their evasion.
2. Put loyalty to the highest moral principles and to the County as a whole above loyalty to individuals, districts, or particular groups.

12. Avoid using the position of public trust to gain access to the media for the purposes of criticizing colleagues or citizens, impugning their integrity or vilifying their personal beliefs.
13. Make sure, when responding to the media, that a clear distinction is made between personal opinion or belief and a decision made by the Board.
14. Review orally and in public session, at the annual organizational meeting, each of these principles.
15. Pledge to honor and uphold these principles, ever conscious that public office is a public trust.

IN RE: BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS

Mr. Yager said he wanted to thank the Planning Commission for doing a very good job. Their decisions keep us from having to meet on cases. He said his thank you is based on seeing other County BZA's like Prince George or Hopewell having meetings every month with eight (8) to ten (10) cases. He thanked the Board members for wanting him to be the Chair for another year.

Mr. Everett asked what the status was for replacing Ms. Sherry.

Mr. Bassett said we had some applicants apply, but they were not qualified applicants. A decision was made to remove the advertisement so that staff along with Human Resources could rethink how to advertise for the position.

Ms. Bassett said he had no comments.

IN RE: ADJOURNMENT

The Chairman said if there is nothing else to discuss he would entertain a motion for adjournment. Ms. Sheets made a motion to adjourn and Mr. Everett seconded it and with all members present voting "AYE" the meeting adjourned at 7:22 p.m.

5. Adopt policies and programs that provide equal opportunity to all citizens without regard to national origin, race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, pregnancy, or sexual orientation.
6. Ensure the integrity of the actions of the Board by conducting official and private affairs in a way that clearly conveys that you cannot be improperly influenced in performing your official duties.
7. Make no private promises of any kind binding upon the duties of any office, since a public servant has no private word, which can be binding on public duty.
8. Engage in no business with the County government, or the school system, either directly or indirectly, which is inconsistent with the conscientious performance of Board duties except as may be consistent with the conflict of interest statutes in the Code of Virginia.
9. Never use any information gained confidentially in the performance of Board duties as a means of making private profit.
10. Expose, through appropriate means and channels, corruption, misconduct, or neglect of duty whenever discovered.
11. Adhere to the principle that the public's business should be conducted in the public view by observing and following the letter and spirit of the Freedom of Information Act using closed sessions only to deal with sensitive personnel, legal or contractual matters as provided by the Code of Virginia.
12. Avoid using the position of public trust to gain access to the media for the purposes of criticizing colleagues or citizens, impugning their integrity or vilifying their personal beliefs.
13. Make sure, when responding to the media, that a clear distinction is made between personal opinion or belief and a decision made by the Board.
14. Review orally and in public session, at the annual organizational meeting, each of these principles.
15. Pledge to honor and uphold these principles, ever conscious that public office is a public trust.
